

TRAGEDY – BEE GEES

             Held in time        In a <sup>world</sup> of tears I <sup>slow-ly</sup> drown
             I <sup>rea-ll-y</sup> should be <sup>hol</sup>ding you, <sup>hol</sup>ding you, <sup>lo</sup>oving you, <sup>lo</sup>oving you

Chorus    Tragedy                When the feeling's gone and you <sup>can't go</sup> on
             It's tragedy            When the morning cries and you <sup>don't know</sup> why
             It's hard to bear      With no-<sup>one</sup> to love you, you're goin' nowhere
             Tragedy                When you lose control and you <sup>got no</sup> soul
             It's tragedy            When the morning cries and you <sup>don't know</sup> why
             It's hard to bear      With no-<sup>one</sup> beside you, you're goin' nowhere

Verse 2    Night and day        There's a burning down inside of me
             Burning love            With a yearning that won't let me be Down I go              And I just can't take it all alone
             I really should be <sup>holding you, holding you,</sup> <sup>loving you, loving you</sup>
